MUTTON BROTH SOUP for Merchants

Lunch this morning at the New McLaughlin House Sample Rooms.

A SINGULAR CASE.—Deputy Sheriff Mahony and Rittler, of Kanawha county, brought to the Penitentiary yesterday Louis Glenn, who was convicted of forgery some months ago, the Circuit Court of that county and sentenced to a term in the Penitentiary. At the trial Glenn was found guilty by the jury, but the Judge neglected to sentence the man and he was thus negligently brought to the Penitentiary. Here the flaw was discovered by Col. Bridges, the Superintendent, who refused to receive the man under the circumstances, and the Kanawha authorities were compelled to take him back. Yesterday he was returned to the ward properly directed, and now begins "to do his term" in the usual manner.

The COLLIER CASE.—There was considerable excitement in the city all day yesterday by the announcement in the morning papers that a warrant would be issued for Aleck Wallace by Squire Bulger, on oath of Percy Collar, the alleged thief in the List case. During the whole day Wallace was seen in different parts of the city, and he told several persons that he could not intend to leave the city, that he would deliver himself up to the law. Squire Bulger did not issue a warrant until after 4 o'clock, when he went to the jail in company with Col. Arnett, the prisoners counsel. When the warrant was made out and given to Constable Henry, who undertook to find Wallace, but Alex had suddenly become scarce and the officer could not find him anywhere although he searched everywhere for him. Wallace finally went to Henry to tell him that he did not intend to stay in jail all night, that he would deliver himself up this morning at 10 o'clock, at which time he thought he could furnish bail. Henry seeing it was useless to look for him further gave the warrant to Key Deffenbaugh, who also failed to find him, and it now remains for Aleck to come to time of his own volition. There seems to be very little doubt among all parties that Aleck either has lost his money or knows where to put his hands on it, and that his conduct yesterday was merely bravado. He is a member of a gang of gamblers and thieves, it is also asserted, who keep him informed of all that is going on.

MINOR MENTION.

The Doings of a Day Botted Down for Hasty Readers.

YESTERDAY was pay day at the Hinge Factory.

A WATERMEN'S picnic took place at Wm. Gruber's, last night.

ONE of the Elm Grove cars broke down on Sunday, detaining travel for some time.

GEORGE BRENNER, an Eighth ward lad, had his arm broken Sunday by falling from a fence.

BILLY DUCHOWALD, lately cook at the Delmonico, will leave for Deadwood City, Dakota, to-day.

THE entertainment that is to be given by the Junior Tent Benefactors is expected to be on a grand scale.

THERE are two women in the First Ward Station House who are charged with drunkenness by Officer Price.

THE Fourth Ward school has been renovated and repainted and now presents a very neat and tasteful appearance.

THE Fifth Ward Garfield Executive Committee will meet at Parker's Hall to-night to transact important business.

GEORGE SCHAIDT complained before Squire Bulger yesterday, that James Smith had assaulted him. A warrant was issued.

A SON of Hugh Boyd, of Elm Grove, was thrown from a horse a day or two ago and had his arm fractured in three places above the elbow.

HORSTON DAVIS, a colored driver in the employ of Simon Baer & Sons, fell from a wagon yesterday, and he had striking the corner of a curb cut badly.

THE Young Men's Garfield Club will meet Wednesday night to make arrangements to receive General Woodford, of New York, when he comes here.

YESTERDAY a countryman had one of his ax trees broken off and a wheel mashed to pieces while crossing the Elm Grove track on Sixteenth street, beyond Jacob.

TALKING about big yields of wheat, Mr. McGrim, livin' on "hog" farm, above Pleasant Valley, sowed one and a half bushels of wheat last fall, and threshed forty-four bushels.

THERE will be a meeting of all old soldiers at the News-Letter office on Thursday evening for the purpose of completing arrangements for the grand reunion at Parkersburg on the 22d of Sept.

THE Washington District Garfield and Arthur Club will meet at the Vigilant Engine Hall this evening at half past seven. A full attendance is desired. There will be an election of officers for a marching club.

SONS one of the passengers on the camping-train Sunday jumped off the train below Benwood for his straw hat which had blown off. The train was going at full speed at the time and the man was much injured.

THIS new house which was received at the Atlantic Engine Works by two men, was tested yesterday. It was subjected to a test of 175 pounds to the inch and proved satisfactory. Capt. Eccles says it will stand 500 if necessary.

SUNDAY night a young couple returned from the camp meeting, and while going up Thirty-third street, the young lady was seized by her uncle and brutally killed and otherwise abused. The uncle was intoxicated at the time. The case excited much indignation, and will probably be ventilated in the Police Court to-morrow.

MARY BELLEVILLE yesterday swore out a peace warrant against Squire W. H. Caldwell, for her husband, Joseph Belinger, who she alleges, threw a beer bottle at her. Before the same Justice of the Peace Tod Mercer made affidavit that Jacob Freese drew a knife and was going to kill Squire Caldwell. The latter was both tried to-day, the latter at 10 A. M. and the former at 11.

LETTERS remaining in the Postoffice unclaimed August 17: Louis Blumenberg, C. B. Beardsley, G. H. Bar, Arthur Chace, James Kearney, J. Deebury, Sarcars & Drake, A. Shick, Wm. T. Wells.

THE School Board of Richland district met at Sheriff Tingle's office yesterday. Present: J. M. Morgan, President; Peter Delaplane, Secretary, and Wm. Connelly and D. A. Garden, members. The following teachers were elected: First district, C. O. Dunlap; Second, Callie W. Curtis; Third, B. F. Delaplane; Fourth, Charles Kirk, Sr.; Fifth, Frank Foreman; Sixth, Thomas Shannon; Seventh, Maggie Bickette; Eighth, Mary English; Ninth, W. Wetman. Wages were fixed at $25, $30 and $35, according to the grade of certificate, and the school term at seven months. Complaint was made to the Board that certain school houses had been injured by night meetings, and the Board directed the school trustees to take the necessary steps in the matter.

IT is thought that the excursion over the B. & O. to-day to Washington, Baltimore, Norfolk, Va., and Fortress Monroe, will be the largest that has ever left this city. It was projected and worked up by S. Smythe, who is a guarantee of its success, but the B. & O. officials have taken a great interest in it, Captain Bond coming out from Baltimore to give it his attention.

FOR the Lower Lakes, falling barometer, east veering to warmer south winds, clear or fair weather, followed by increasing cloudiness.

TELEPHONE CONCERT.—There was another delightful telephone concert last night given to a large audience all over the city. Edmund Bocking delighted with the first experiment projected another one, and last night it was carried out through the exertions of Colonel Wolf and Captain C. Y. Lucas. Pianos, mouth organs, violins, harmoniums and other instruments were brought in requisition and all manipulated with admirable effect, while the vocal efforts were given in excellent style. At Bocking's drug store there was an audience of twenty-five or thirty, and nearly all of these had been provided with tickets by the proprietor, who was assisted by the singing of Miss Virginia Hupp, and Mr. Lucas were very fine and heard with much distinction all over the city, and at Mrs. DeChantal and Bellevue. This is the second successful concert.

SMOKER BRILLIANT CIGARS. They are the cheapest and the best for the money.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

To City Engineer B. W. Peterson and Street Commissioner Nichols.

The upper part of the city was thrown into a state of great excitement last night about 11 o'clock by the announcement that a runaway had taken place on North Market street, and by City Engineer B. W. Peterson and Street Commissioner James W. Nichols had received fatal injuries. In common with several hundred others who were attracted to the spot by the report, our reporter went up to a point near Eighth street, where he found a very large crowd gathered in front of a house. Pushing his way through the crowd he found Mr. Peterson stretched out upon the porch very bloody, with several severe cuts across his forehead, his nose broken, his upper lip cut entirely through, and the lower one badly cut and bruised. Dr. Tom O. Edwards and Ulrich were up on the gashes on his head and the rent in his upper lip, and made him as comfortable as possible. After the injuries had been attended to he was placed upon a stretcher and taken to his home on Chapline street, near Fourteenth where he was resting comfortably at midnight.

Mr. Nichols strange to say was nearly unhurt, suffering only a sprained ankle, and the destruction of his hat, although he was thrown from the buggy at the same time. Mr. Peterson was a well known citizen, and in the evening the two principals in the affair, had hired a buggy from Mr. Nichols and gone out on the pike, and returning over the hill the horse and driver frightened and thrown the gentleman and with the results above described. The horse ran furiously down Market street to the stable where it stopped, and the buggy was found to be uninjured. The escape of both gentlemen was something miraculous.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPH.—John Lane, express messenger between this city and Baltimore, is spending a few days in this city.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

BRIDGEPORT.

Colored Camp Meeting.—Too Many Saloons.—Other Matters of News.

The Nall City Glass Works will start up between the 5th and 10th of September.

The train leaving Bridgeport at 5:30 P. M. over the C. T. V. & W. and the one arriving at 8:30 A. M. will, on and after to-day carry express freight.

Belmont county wool is still held by the farmers at 50 cents. Buyers have come up cent at a time from 40 to 47 cents, but the farmers seem determined not to sell at less than 50 cents. The abundant crop of wheat which they are selling enables them to hold their ground by supplying them with money for their necessities.

The abutments for the new bridge over Wheeling creek are almost completed. They are good ones, as, of course, they ought to be, as the bridge has taken to build them. The question of a new carriage bridge over the same stream, connecting Bridgeport and Kirkwood, where the little foot-bridge now menaces the lives of school children, is being talked up by the school trustees. But a question of improvement involving the outlay of money will stand a considerable amount of talking up before it is gotten fairly up.

The Union camp meeting of the colored M. E. Church, at Cooks' Grove, was opened up on last Wednesday, and on Sunday a large crowd was in attendance and good spiritual feeling prevailed. The grand old forest and rock ribbed hills reverberated with the song of praise, the great up in glorious harmony from the large audience. The following able ministers were on the ground: Rev. Doctor M. W. Taylor, of Cincinnati; Rev. J. H. Hargrave, of Oben; Rev. R. A. Alexander, of Steubenville; Rev. Geo. Hollinger, of Wheeling; Rev. J. A. Transer, of Mt. Pleasant; Rev. H. W. Tate, of Baltimore; Rev. S. R. P. Bell, of Baltimore; Rev. S. R. Cottrell, of Belpré, Ohio; Rev. J. Brown, of Cleveland; and Rev. W. H. Draper, of Wheeling. This camp ground is situated one mile west of Bridgeport, on the Cadiz pike, is easy of access and is well wooded.

Amos Osborn has had application to rent his new house on Washington street, to be used as a saloon and billiard room. Amos declined, as he considers the business already overdone in Bridgeport, and thinks it only a question of a short time when some of those now open will be closed for want of patronage.

Colonel John Hill went to Mountdeville camp meeting on Sunday to experience a change in pocket-book, in running a hack from the railroad to the camp grounds.

WHEELING.

Improvement Notes.—Personnelities.—A "Liberal" Republican in the best Sense.

The Second Methodist Episcopal church (colored) holds a festival Tuesday evening, for the benefit of their minister, Rev. Tate. A bolt of muslin is to be contested for by Rachel Skatin and Aunt Lydia Edmondson.

Rev. Gaston's house, on Jefferson street, is being repaired.

The Belaire and Southwestern railroad is a good road to get up excursions, and always gets a crowd.

Somebody is going to join Smythe's excursion to Fortress Monroe.

Conrad Troll, the owner of the lots north of the postoffice, has given the Republicans permission to put up their stand on the lots. He says they may put a whole house there if it will help the Republican cause any. A new stand will be built and the old one abandoned.

August Baer's house is having a new roof built over it, and new weather boarding put on. It caught last Saturday night's rain without a roof.

Albert Dunlap, who left here and went to Colorado last fall, is expected back the first of October.

Company D is drilling every night now, and will be ready for the first of October.

Some of those of our people who went to Mountdeville camp meeting Sunday think Burr's Mills camp is gradually drawing more and more of the crowd every day and getting to be more popular of the two.

J. W. Coulson and wife have been stopping at a hotel in Pittsburgh for some time, and a telegram was received by his brother-in-law, Mr. Henry, Sunday evening, stating that he had been sick in bed for five days.

The new water main that crosses the creek at Crozier's brick yard is exposed. Across the south half of the creek bed the pipe is laid in the rock bottom and on the other half it will be covered with large stones rip rapped to prevent all danger of breaking or freezing.

The foundation of a large house is being made on the lots just south of McGowan's, on Gravel Hill.

An interesting house, above Gravel Hill, is approaching completion.

Thos. Wetherall's house, the farthest up on Guernsey street, Gravel Hill, is getting into shape.

WHEELING.

Republican Primaries.—Death of an Old Citizen.—Soldiers Reunion.—Local Notes &c., &c.

WHEELING, August 16.

The Republican primaries were held at the several voting places in the county on last Saturday. At present it is difficult to ascertain the correct vote. Returns from all the precincts give W. C. Barclay, candidate for Sheriff, two of a majority over John A. Briggs, his opponent. Wheeler Reeves is probably nominated for Assessor over Cowan, Craft and Cree. T. S. Brown gets the nomination for Sheriff. George W. Leach is nominated for the House of Delegates.

A. J. Applegate and Darwin McClelland are nominated for Justices of Wellsburg township. Dr. Joshua W. Gist is nominated for presiding justice.

Samuel wife of Mr. Peter Blankenship, Sr., died on Saturday morning. She was over seventy years of age and has resided in Wellsburg many years. She leaves a large number of friends and acquaintances to mourn her loss.

A meeting is called for Friday evening next by the ex-soldiers here, to take into consideration a reunion of the soldiers of the First and Twelfth West Virginia Infantry. This county furnished two companies for the First and one for the Twelfth regiments, and they are a goodly number for each of the other branches of the service. During the County Fair is the time talked of for holding the reunion.

The colored camp meeting, at the fair ground, is still going on, and will continue in all probability during the week.

W. L. Kelley, a prominent railroad conductor, of Omaha, Neb., is here visiting friends.

ROUNDVILLE.

Disorder on Sunday.—Excursion of Yesterday.—Today's Programme.

ROUNDVILLE, August 16.

In our report of yesterday we failed to note the arrivals of the Rev. C. Y. Kennedy, J. D. Vail, and E. W. Ryan. We note among the arrivals to-day G. E. Hite, W. H. Wiley, S. Steele, J. W. More, and Bishop Peck, also J. Curtis, of the Reformed Episcopal church, and A. Buchanan, of the Episcopal church.

We inquired of the police of our town as to the order yesterday, and we learned that between twenty and thirty persons were drunk, and in almost every case were drunkards, or the result of strong drink. Those arrested were all from a distance, and the subject of open gates at the camping-trip is being discussed both in town and on the campground. There will undoubtedly be an earnest effort to have the gates closed on Sunday next year.

"Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus, Ye Soldiers of the Cross," was an appropriate hymn sung at the morning service at the stand.

Dr. Thoburn's talk—we prefer to call it a talk—from the text, "I knew a man above fourteen years ago," was plain and practical. The text was peculiar, and the address was peculiarly interesting.

The theme for the children's meeting this afternoon was "Kindness."
